TOTUS TUUS (Totally Yours), TOTUS TUUS HELP NEEDED. June 18-23 Thank you to those who have volunteered to help and/or bring food for Totus Tuus. There are still a couple of places we need help. Friday, we need someone to help grill burgers, and 2 or 3 people to help serve lunch at the park and help with some prep and cleanup. Please contact the parish office if you are available.

Change of Plans from St. Mary’s Funraising Committee: For the past several years, the FunRaising Committee has sponsored a July 4 picnic for parishioners. Due to the Corpus Christi celebration and picnic in June, and David City’s 150th birthday celebration the end of July, our committee has decided to ‘take a break’ this year from the July 4 event at St. Mary’s. Details are pending for a new event in September instead: ‘Parade of Churches’ – you won’t want to miss this!

Called to Holiness: Dr. Jo Witter will speak on Sunday, June 25 sharing her faith journey to the Catholic faith. Each installment will begin with a potluck dinner in the Didier Room at 6pm followed by the faith sharing of the given speaker at 6:30pm

All are invited to come and hear these amazing stories.

Thank you to all who ran for Parish Council and for all who voted! Congratulations to Mike Eller and Kathy Engel who were elected to the Parish Council and Misty Havlovic and Mindy Schawang elected to the PCCW as treasurer and VP.

Pastor’s Corner

Dear Parishioners:

Happy Father’s Day to all our wonderful fathers, living and deceased. We had a beautiful turn out for the Mystical Body of Christ to celebrate the Solemnity of the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ (Corpus Christi) at Masses and at our Procession and cookout. I think we had about 130 people attending and joining for the meal. God blessed us with glorious weather. The Knights had just enough burgers, brats, beans and chips and the PCCW had brownies and ice cream for all. Monday and Tuesday, I went with Deacon Jonah and Seminarian Cody Hein to KC for a Royals vs Reds game. Originally, I was going with Fr. Ventre (Reds fan) but the plans changed with the death of his dear grand-mother. We adjusted and had a good time. We visited the Truman Musuem and the Franciscans of the Holy Eucharist, both in Independ-ence. We were able to spend some time with Sr. Collette Marie Jaros who was from Lincoln and is currently their vocations director while teaching religion and History at Pius X HS, in North KCMO. On Tuesday, we visited six churches before stopping in Gower, MO to see the Benedictines of Mary, Queen of Apostles. You may have heard of Sr. Mary Wilhelmina, their foundress who died in 2019 and was re-cently discovered to be incorrupt. We enjoyed visiting their young com-munity, beautiful Church, monastery and seeing her body (now behind glass under an altar). We had a good Parish Council meeting on Tuesday night. We are grate-ful to Cheri Kobza and Andrew Buresh for three years of service and welcome newly elected Mike Eller and Kathy Engel. On Wednesday, we had a nice breakfast with a good crowd in the Didier room that coincided with Deacon Jonah’s 25th birthday. We sang to him and I asked him to tell everyone about himself. It was really good voca-tion story. I am sure he will share it again if asked. On Thursday I am flying to Washington, DC for a wedding of a NAM parishioner. The wedding is Friday and then I will get a chance to see my sister and her family before returning on Monday. I want to thank a few people who are here volunteering every week, helping things run smoothly. Mark Chermok does a very nice job putting together the bulletin. He comes when he has free time and always brings it together in a nice manner. Patty Vaca and Marlene Hein count the col-lection each week. They are very trustworthy while having lots of laughs. Thank you!

Allan Steinberger and Ken Smith take care of a lot of the outdoors around the church. Allan mows each Thursday and Ken does whatever is needed on our property. Allan also sets up for the 6:20 daily Mass. Ken also takes care of the Cemetery. John Svec does the trimming of the shrubs. Fr. Schukei is moving further along with the landscaping and downspouts. Within a couples of weeks, we will need a lot of helpers to spread the mulch.

This weekend, Fr. Matthew Schilmoeller (just ordained) will celebrate the 8 and 10 a.m. Masses. He was here during covid and loved his time in Butler Co. He has favorite priest status coming from NAM, right up with all the Aquinas priests and of course, Fr. Tony Schukei. God bless you all, FBC
