Widow(er) & Singles Morning of Recollection: St. Mary's parish is offering a morning of recollection and lunch for all widows, widowers, and those living the single life - whether unmarried or single again by divorce - regardless of age. The morning will consist of two short talks, time for silent prayer and reflection in the church and will conclude with lunch. The morning of recollection will be held on Saturday, March 5th, with the recollection period from 10:00 am to Noon and lunch at Noon. There is no cost. Widows, widowers, and singles in high school or older are encouraged to attend to hear our Lord speak to your heart! RSVP by March 2 to the parish office.

Serving the homeless for Lent: St. Mary's parish will be making meals for the homeless and serving them at the Rescue mission in Columbus, NE. The dates are March 1st, 15th, 29th during lent. We need about 10-12 volunteers for each date; to help prepare and serve the meals. If interested in being a part of any/all of these, please contact the rectory to sign up. The meal is usually served at 5:30pm that evening and adults and kids are welcome to help.

Southern NE Register (Catholic Press) Collection: All are invited to contribute to the collection for the diocesan newspaper. This paper goes out to all parishioners, paid for by the parish. It is full of wonderful local and national stories and commentaries that help us grow in faith and hope. Your donation helps to defer the cost incurred by the parish. A donation of $15 is suggested. There are envelopes appropriately marked in your packet or give on Pushpay or by using the QR code found on the pews in church. Thank you for your generosity
