What Eucharistic adoration is NOT:
a parish activity *a committee that requires work *a weekly responsibility *a commitment with expectations prayer when everything else in life is in order

What Eucharistic adoration IS:
your personal appointment with Jesus your time for silence with Jesus your opportunity to grow in relationship with Jesus* prayer time that Jesus makes possible with trust in Him .*
The perfect Healer is at the door and knocks...

Summer is in full swing and everything has slowed down except for the growth of corn. I am looking forward to vacation this week. I will go to Ludington, Michigan again to spend a week on the lake with my brother Kevin and Anne. This year I am driving up with my tennis friend from Lincoln and his wife. There is a tennis tournament Monday through Friday for singles, doubles, and mixed doubles. I will play in all three divisions. We will also play cards, go for bike rides and walks, sneak in some golf, cornhole and hopefully read a book. I am even looking forward to the drive up and back.

Last year I flew up, via my least favorite airport in the USA, Chicago, Ohara. On the way home, the small plane from MI was simply fine into Ohara airport. Then we had some harsh weather coming in and the 5 p.m. Friday flight was delayed, drug out, and then finally canceled after 10 p.m. I would not be able to fly out until Sunday and there were no rental cars or hotel rooms. I had a bad night of sleep on the floor at the airport and then went into the city to board the Amtrack at 1 p.m. to arrive in Lincoln at Midnight. It was a 36 hour long return trip that cost too much. After that experience, I am glad to have someone to drive and share the vacation with this year. Vacation is an enjoyable time to be with family and renew, refresh, and make memories. It does us good to break the routine and see another part of the state, country (or world). There is no vacation from a vocation whatever our state in life (married, priest, religious, single) but we can pray in a different local and keep that routine. Making the effort to keep the spiritual life alive when on vacation is something our family always did. How can you be away from work and not have time for prayer? In Michigan, I will frequent St. Simon’s Catholic Church. They have adoration all day long 6 a.m. until 10 p.m. We also like to go there for Sunday Mass to experience the whole faith community. Fr. Wayne is very welcoming, and we had him over for dinner last year. I hope you get a chance for vacation or at least the spirit with some staycation.

God bless you, Fr. Brian Connor
